To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing this letter of recommendation on behalf of Dave Nash of Envy Homes. I had the pleasure of working with Dave this past year during construction of our new home. I highly recommend him without reservation.

Throughout the course of planning and construction, Dave exceeded my expectations with his professionalism, timeliness, and his dedication to making sure his customers are happy. He empathizes and truly understands that every person, or family, has unique circumstances and he is determined to fulfill their individual needs and their wishes. Not only is he a reputable builder but he's a very good person.

In addition, I learned early that I could trust Dave, his opinion, and his work. He is a man of his word and he takes great pride in Envy Homes. During construction, Dave assured me he would do his best to get as close as he could to the targeted completion date. The best is exactly what he did. Our new home was completed within the exact time frame we had discussed from the beginning. His attention to details and his promptness in handling those details is what contributed to meeting that goal. Also, those details are what make me proud to show our new home today.

I am confident you won't be disappointed in Envy Homes. Any future construction or renovation that arises for me, I can assure you I will be calling Dave Nash again.

Sincerely,
